6,000 Killed By a Cyclone

20,000 Others Missing On East Pakistan Coast

DACCA, East Pakistan (AP) — About 6,000 bodies have been recovered in one area of the cyclone-devastated coast of East Pakistan and 20,000 other persons are believed missing, the newspaper Daily Pakistan said today.

Presumably among the missing were about 5,000 fishermen that reports from the area said had been swept to their deaths when the cyclone struck Wednesday.

US Losses In Viet Nam 'Misfigured'

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. losses in the Viet Nam war are lower than officials anticipated, it was learned today.

When the Pentagon laid out plans last summer for the big buildup in Viet Nam it cranked into its calculations an estimate of how many Americans might be expected to be killed.

While the figures are secret, it is known that fewer American servicemen have been killed so far than had been predicted. The Pentagon reported Thursday.

(Please turn to Page 8, Col. 1)

The government-controlled Daily Pakistan said the bodies were recovered from one densely populated area of Cox's Bazaar, which felt the full brunt of the 100-mile winds and the 12-foot wave that followed.

So far the only official estimate of casualty figures has come from the deputy commissioner at Chittagong, who said 150 bodies have been recovered in various areas.

The Pakistani government rushed relief teams and supplies to the coastal region, where villages and crops were devastated.

The governor of East Pakistan flew from Dacca to Chittagong to direct relief operations.

The cyclone started in the Bay of Bengal, which is formed by India, East Pakistan and Burma. The storm hit at Cox's Bazar, moved up the coast through Chittagong, about 200 miles east of Calcutta and then blew itself out as it moved northeast.

Naval units searched for survivors on the many small islands dotting the coast. Two hundred deep-sea fishermen were reported missing off Sonadia Island.

Persons reaching Chittagong from Cox's Bazar, 80 miles down the coast, said they saw scattered bodies. The news agency said the British ship Star Pink picked up five survivors in the Bay of Bengal Wednesday.

Details of the devastation on the islands were sketchy because communications were cut.

12 GIs Hurt By Terrorist Grenade

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A teen-age terrorist tossed a grenade into a truckload of U.S. soldiers in Saigon today, injuring 12 GIs.

It was Saigon's fourth straight day of terrorism marking the fifth anniversary Monday of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

The would-be assassin, about 15 or 16, fled in the confusion on the busy street. Only one of the Americans was seriously injured.

In North Viet Nam, Communist MIGs took to the air — but cautiously — during another day of heavy bombardment.

American pilots reported sighting seven Soviet-built MIG 17s which kept a discreet distance while apparently trailing the U.S. jets. An Air Force spokesman said the American planes were too short on fuel to take on the Communist jets.

Two U.S. planes were lost in other operations. A Navy jet returning from a mission over North Viet Nam crashed into the ramp of the flight deck of the carrier Kitty Hawk and plunged into the sea. The pilot was presumed dead.

Enemy ground fire apparently nailed an Air Force F5 Freedom fighter jet which crashed on an attack mission 15 miles from Saigon. An Army helicopter picked up the injured pilot but he died later.

In the ground war, a Viet Cong battalion badly mauled a government company 22 miles northwest of the capital, inflicting heavy casualties. The Reds fled before a relief column came to the scene.

The appearance of the MIGs came after U.S. officials had expressed some concern about probes of American air preparedness by Communist jets. The Air Force did not specify the nationality of the MIGs sighted over North Viet Nam.

Open 2 New Whiteways

Two new Whiteway extensions had the electric power thrown to them about 8:30 o'clock Thursday night when Mayor L. L. Studer and Earl D. Dryer, vice-president in charge of Operations for the Missouri Public Service Co., threw the switches.

One switch located at Broadway and Porter controlled the new mercury vapor street lighting on U. S. Highway 50 east to the Missouri Pacific underpass. The second switch was just north of Broadway and Limit. It controlled the new system on U. S. Highway 65 (Limit avenue) lighting this new pavement north to the Main Street overpass.

The new lighting program consists of 48 new 400 watt mercury vapor lights on East Broadway between New York Street and the Missouri Pacific underpass; and 26 similar lights on North 65 between Broadway and Main Street.

Members of the City Council, Chamber of Commerce officials and the Sedalia Industrial Development Corporation leaders were present as dinner guests of the Missouri Public Service Co., at the Missouri Homestead prior to the lighting ceremony. Dryer, James W. Stephens, MPS vice-president in charge of Municipal Affairs, and Mayor Studer gave short talks. Harry Kull, manager of the Sedalia district presided.

Dryer complimented the City Administration for its foresight in the overall lighting program of which the new lights are a part. He also discussed some of the recent MPS construction program in Sedalia and construction now in the planning stage.

He told the group the recently completed $40,900 street lighting program represented completion of another segment in the Company's engineering plans to keep Sedalia's electrical system up-to-date and to provide for future expansion. He complimented the City Administration for its forward thinking in authorizing the two new lighting improvements on the two major highways running through Sedalia.

"MPS has expended over $478,000 in improvements to its service facilities in Sedalia within the past three years," he said. "Some of these improvements, such as street lighting,

Over Rhodesia Issue

Diplomatic Break By UAR, Britain

CAIRO (AP) — The United Arab Republic Thursday night became the fifth African nation to break diplomatic relations with Britain over Rhodesia.

Earlier Ghana, Tanzania, Guinea and Mali heeded the call by the Organization of African Unity for its 36 members to break with London unless the British overthrew Prime Minister Ian Smith's Rhodesian government by last Wednesday.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, reported that four more OAU members, Nigeria, Mauritania, Senegal and the Congo Republic — Brazzaville, were also breaking with Britain. Senegal denied it would do so now, and there was no confirmation on the others.

Rhodesia's white minority government declared independence from Britain on Nov. 11 after negotiations broke down over Britain's insistence that Rhodesia's four million Africans be guaranteed ultimate control of the government. There are 220,000 whites in Rhodesia.

Britain has imposed economic sanctions against Rhodesia but refuses to use force to bring down the Smith regime. The African nations are in no position to mount a successful military operation against Rhodesia.

Police Santa Program Set For Saturday

Several hundred children from Sedalia and Pettis County will visit the Sedalia Police station, located in the west end of the City Hall, to meet Santa Claus and receive the annual treats made available by members of the Police Department.

A 12-foot Christmas tree contributed by the Sedalia Optimist Club has been placed in the center of the station. Officers have spent several hours arranging the tree with many colored lights, Christmas balls, strings of decorations and tinsel, by which Santa will be located with his sacks of candies, oranges and apples.

Chief of Police William E. Miller, said officers anticipate well over 2,000 youngsters will visit the station. Each year the children become more friendly and find police officers are their friends, and as a result more and more want to visit the Police Station and see Old Santa.

"It does my heart good to see the police continue with this annual affair for the Children," former Chief of Police Edgar Neighbors said this past week. "Well do I remember when this was started under my administration and the first year we had several hundred and it is wonderful that each year the visits by children continue to increase. My congratulations go to Chief Miller and his men for this project which hundred and hundreds of children look forward to, some of these youngsters who will visit this year are probably babies of those youngsters who came to our tree the

Near Goal of 14-Days In Outer Space

Another Day for Gemini 7

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex., (AP)—The Gemini 7 pilots — assured that the power-producing fuel cells of their space ship would not fail them — hurtled confidently onward today to the big goal of 14 days in space.

After a night of worry over the power system, flight directors determined that it would hold up, and gave the world space endurance champions Frank Borman and James Lovell a "go" for the full distance of 5,149,400 miles.

This would bring them to a landing in the Atlantic Ocean at 9:05 a.m. (EST) Saturday, in same area where spacemen Walter Schirra and Thomas Stafford brought the Gemini 6 down Thursday near the waiting aircraft carrier Wasp.

"There's no reason," astronaut Elliot See told Borman and Lovell in a statewide pass this morning, "that we shouldn't go straight on downhill from now on."

Gemini 7 entered its 193rd orbit at 10:25 a.m. (EST).

The Gemini 7 astronauts were so sure of themselves that they made a bet with Schirra and Stafford during their historic rendezvous in space Wednesday that they would make a more accurate landing. Gemini 6 missed the aircraft carrier Wasp by less than 15 miles.

The stakes were not disclosed but Borman asked today for accurate figures on the Gemini 6 splashdown point. "There's a lot riding on that," he told mission control.

Ideal weather conditions that prevailed during the Gemini 6 re-entry will continue Saturday forecasters said.

After keeping cautious watch on the power system through the night, flight directors gave the green light for a full mission to Borman and Lovell as they soared near Bermuda.

This was soon after Gemini 7 entered its 190th orbit.

A warning light, supposed to indicate fuel cell trouble although ground station monitors said the unit's power output was normal, flashed on Thursday. It finally flickered out about 2:20 a.m. today but started burning anew before completion of another orbit.

John D. Hodge, the overnight flight director, said the cell nevertheless would last at least 150 hours.

Two Injured In Accident On South 65

Two young women were injured in a one-car accident eight miles south of Sedalia at 10:35 a.m. Friday on Highway 65 when their auto flipped end-over-end once, rolled twice more on its side and came to rest on the east side of the highway. Both passengers in the car were thrown out.

Mrs. Margaret Jane Kindle, 19, 3325 Campbell, Kansas City, the driver of the northbound 1965 Ford, told investigating Highway Patrol Trooper W. T. Southwick she observed another car passing as she topped a hillcrest and thought she was going to collide with the oncoming vehicle.

As Mrs. Kindle swerved her car to the right it skidded some 150 feet onto the right shoulder, struck an embankment and began to overturn traveling a total distance of 250 feet before landing on its wheels. The car was demolished and items inside were strewn over the shoulder of the road.

A passenger in the car, Mrs. Nancy Higgins, 21, Lincoln, was thrown some 30 feet from the auto into a field. Mrs. Kindle was thrown out just north of where the car came to rest.

The two women were brought to Bothwell Hospital in the Ewing ambulance and were being treated at Democrat press-time with full extent of their injuries still unknown.

Mrs. Kindle suffered a head laceration and possible injury to the left lower leg. Mrs. Higgins was believed to have sustained two fractured wrists, but other injuries were not known.

Elmer Fuchs, Marshall, who was driving south in a MFA Seeds Division truck, saw the accident.

"The minute the car came over the hill, it swerved to the right and began rolling over and over," he said.

Pettis County Sheriff Emmett Fairfax and Deputy Jack Coutts were the first law officers to arrive on the scene as Trooper Southwick had to be summoned from Johnson County where he was on patrol.

Mrs. Kindle's relatives were reported to be from Warsaw.

Ann Landers

Answers
Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: My husband is a brilliant student at the state university. Two weeks before we were married Tim's friends gave him a stag party at which he got very drunk. The boys decided to drive him to a strange part of town, take off his trousers and leave him stranded.

Tim doesn't recall what happened, but he knows he wandered into a back yard. About 2:30 a.m. some people called the police and had him arrested. Tim spent the night in jail. Thank heavens the police understood it was a prank. They released him the next morning and the trespassing charges were dropped. What happened to Tim proves that one evening of foolishness can cause months of heartache. My husband has been a nervous wreck ever since. He is afraid the incident will ruin his career. I've talked until I'm blue in the face but he still worries. Can you say something to put his mind at ease?—MRS. R. C.

Dear Mrs.: If the charges were dropped there is no record. If Tim wants to drain his energies about something 'that doesn't exist, he's not brilliant. He's stupid.

Dear Ann Landers: I am the mother of four children — two girls and two boys. They range from 6 to 12 years of age. All winter long, one or two of my four children are out of school with a bad cold or worse.

I went to school yesterday to see the oldest boy in a play. Now I know why my kids are always sick. Five kids in that room should have been at home. I was shocked to see so many red noses, so much coughing, wheezing, sneezing and blowing. One boy looked like he had pink eye. Some mothers push their half-sick children out the door because they don't want to bother with them. I feel this is unfair to the other youngsters and I want to know what can be done about it.—FURIOUS.

Dear Furious: You are right. Too many irresponsible mothers shove their sick kids out of the house when they should be kept at home.

It's up to the teacher to spot these youngsters and send them to the school nurse. The nurse should then decide whether the child should stay in school or be shipped home.

Dear Ann Landers: A friend of mine gave her boss four weeks' notice. There was no trouble. Suzy just got tired of the job and decided to do something more interesting. Her boss offered her a sizeable salary increase and tried hard to get her to stay but she told him her mind was made up.

Suzy has one more week to go and is eager to get out. Yesterday her boss asked her to please stay on an additional two weeks. Do you think this is fair? Suzy is afraid that if she refuses the boss will not give her a good recommendation. We would like your opinion.—WINNIPEG.

Dear Winnie: Although you don't say so, your letter makes it clear that Suzy does not yet have another job. If this is indeed the case I feel it would be extremely generous of her to work the additional two weeks and help the boss out.

She should make it clear, however, that she cannot stay beyond THAT time under any circumstances. There is much to be said for terminating a working relationship on a friendly note. Suzy will never regret it.

Enlarge Space Plans For Flights

By RALPH DIGHTON
AP Science Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP)—The record-breaking flight of Gemini 7's "crummy and itchy" crew has already persuaded medical officers that future pilots will be able to endure the confinement of space travel for at least 30 days.

Dr. Charles A. Berry, Gemini flight surgeon, says, "There is no limit to in-flight time if we can solve the comfort problem."

"I personally feel the Gemini 7 astronauts will be in no worse shape after 14 days than the Gemini 5 pilots were after eight days," he said.

In their 683-foot instrument-lammed cabin Air Force Lt. Col. Frank Borman and Navy Cmdr. James A. Lovell Jr. have been unable to bathe, shave or even stretch out full length since their launch Dec. 4.

They have voiced few complaints, however, except to say they felt "crummy and itchy" and that they were too warm when required to wear pressure suits. When allowed to strip down to their long underwear, both agreed that was "the only way to fly."

"Admittedly, Gemini 7 is a small spacecraft," Berry said in an interview toward the end of the two-week flight. "But if they had a larger vehicle in which they could move around I believe they could go to 30 days or even longer."

"These two men have adapted normally in their heart rates, sleep and performance. For the rest of the flight we are going to watch closely the small comfort items that may get more bothersome, such as the simple problem of getting clean."

Berry said Borman and Lovell have shown no signs of the motion sickness suffered by two of the three men aboard the Russian Voskhod 1 spacecraft in October 1964.

One of the two was a doctor, the other a scientist. Their commander, an experienced fighter pilot, felt no ill effects.

Berry pointed out that the United States also plans to send scientists into space but they are being given flight training first.

"There are some factors we don't understand in motion sickness," he said, "but we do check the sensitivity of all astronaut candidates to this sort of stress."

Berry said there are no plans to let future astronauts shave. Razors or electric shavers would take up valuable cabin space and there is always the chance tiny pieces of whiskers might sift into electrical equipment and cause short circuits.

The crummy, itchy feeling apparently hasn't bothered Borman and Lovell too much, he said. "They have adequate water left. They could saturate tissue with water and rub their bodies down while unsuited, but they apparently haven't done so yet. As far as I know, they have used moist towels only on the face."

Upholds First Ruling In Fair Housing Test

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Judge David Fitzgibbon of the Court of Criminal Correction Thursday upheld dismissal of the first discrimination charge under the City's Fair Housing Ordinance.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ellis had charged they were unable to rent an apartment in the Aroya Gardens Apartments because of their race. However, City Judge George Cady dismissed the charge in September on grounds that the city failed to prove any discrimination.

Christmas Spirit Brings Home Offers

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The Christmas spirit has moved many Nashvillians to offer homes to the Albert T. Davis family, left without a place to live when fire destroyed their house Wednesday morning.

Only thing is, Davis says, he's taken a liking to the barn where he and the other five members of his family have been living since the fire. He says he thinks he'll stay there.

"I thank everyone for their offers of places to live," the 50-year-old salvage dealer says.

"But I think this barn can be fixed up, and we'd rather stay around here, close to the school and the people we know."

Early Bird Makes TV History

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Television's most brilliant performer Thursday was a man-made one, the Early Bird satellite. It brought into millions of homes the conclusion of one of the most exciting adventure stories of our time — and we saw it as it happened.

The event was the magnificent live coverage of the recovery of the Gemini 6 space capsule from the Atlantic Ocean, safely home after its history-making rendezvous with Gemini 7.

The live broadcast was made possible by cooperation among various government arms concerned with the flight and the television network pool. A big saucer-like contraption rigged on the carrier Wasp transmitted television signals to the satellite which in turn relayed them to the broadcasting channels and into our homes.

When the capsule was being secured to the ship's lines, viewers could see the Navy frogmen at work better than many aboard the carrier itself. We were right on the spot, too at that moment when the capsule's hatches were opened and two grinning astronauts emerged.

The staffs of the three networks did their usual lucid jobs of covering the descent of the spacecraft with illustrations and animations of the stages.

NBC plans a two-part "white paper" on the late John F. Kennedy, the first one to be broadcast on the anniversary of the late president's birthday, May 29. The second comes a week later.

Recommended weekend viewing:

Saturday — "Big Sky Country," ABC, 9:30-10:30 p.m., second in the "This Proud Land" series, exploring the prairie country with Robert Preston, host.

Life Term Handed Down For Strangling

ST. LOUIS (AP)—James Dale Edwards was sentenced to life in prison Thursday night for strangling to death a St. Louis County divorcee.

The jury deliberated five hours before returning its first degree murder verdict.

Edwards, 24, a machinist, was charged with strangling attractive Miss Carol Sussex, 27, in her suburban Edmondson apartment last February.

Edwards testified that he signed a confession earlier after he was abused by police. He said he did not enter the apartment and did not know how Miss Sussex was killed.

Rendezvous Points Way For Future

WASHINGTON (AP)—The successful rendezvous of the Gemini 6 and 7 space vehicles has pointed the way toward the first step needed if the military is to have a useful role in space.

But neither Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara nor Pentagon experts feel this peaceful scientific demonstration in itself will lead to military activity in space in the near future.

What Wednesday's rendezvous did was to show the ability to "dock" one orbiting space vehicle with another — and thus transfer and supply crews of large, comparatively permanent spacecrafts without bringing the ships to earth each time.

With no decision made on how the military might utilize space, the Defense Department has received President Johnson's approval to go ahead with the $1.5-billion "Military Orbiting Laboratory" — MOL — aimed at determining what military men could do in space and how this could benefit the national defense.

The Pentagon rules out, basically, any idea of using satellites carrying nuclear weapons to be put down on targets either by making the vehicles re-enter the earth's atmosphere and directing them to targets or by releasing the weapon from the vehicle and aiming it at the target.

There are two reasons for this: U.S. defense experts insist that better accuracy, reliability and warhead load can be obtained with long-range ballistic missiles; and there is agreement between the major nuclear powers not to use satellites as weapons.

There are, however, obvious fields of interest for those contemplating future possibilities for military space activities.

The first is inspection of suspected space vehicles which might be carrying weapons and he either manned or unmanned. Here close approach or even actual entry into the suspected vehicle would be needed. If the vehicle proved hostile, it would be necessary to destroy it, again by a rendezvous close enough so the explosion of the intercepting weapon would do the job.

Then there is surveillance of the earth. That already is being done by unmanned, highly instrumented satellites which scan the earth from polar orbits. Both the United States and the Soviet Union have such systems.

The use of rendezvous could make possible the posting of large, manned "space platforms" in orbit, primarily as a base in the sky for sending out

The weight of the brain varies with age, stature, body weight, sex and race. Age influences brain weight considerably. ## Turn Down Bid From State Banks

WASHINGTON (AP)—A request to exempt Missouri banks from paying higher interest on deposits of state funds was turned down Thursday by the Federal Reserve Board.

The request was made by Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo., who wrote Chairman William Martin Jr. he was concerned about the effect on Missouri's economy. Long pointed out that under Missouri law, banks are required to pay the maximum permissible interest on deposits of state treasury funds.

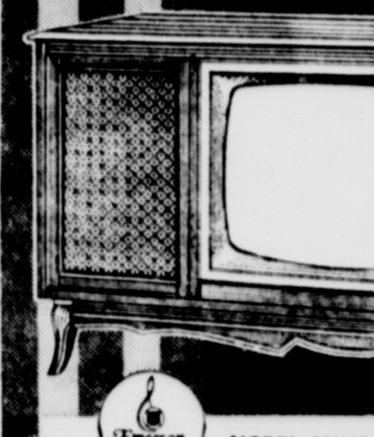

Martin replied that the Federal Reserve has no legal authority to make an exception for Missouri banks. Earlier this month the Federal Reserve authorized an increase to 5.5 per cent, from 4.5 per cent, in maximum interest that banks may pay on time deposits.

Long said about $94 million in state funds are held in 433 banks in Missouri, and that the banks were given notice they were returning the money to the state treasurer because they would take a loss if they held it under the higher interest rates.

Harris Will Still Keep House Seat

WASHINGTON (AP)—Colleagues of Rep. Oren Harris joined in farewell eulogies to a departing member before Congress adjourned in October. Harris responded with what was considered a farewell address.

But Harris now plans to be in his seat when the House reconvenes Jan. 10.

The reason: President Johnson, who nominated the Arkansas Democrat in July to be a federal judge, still hasn't signed the formal commission although the Senate confirmed the nomination in August. And Harris doesn't plan to give up his House seat until his new judicial position is official.

Reached by telephone at his home in El Dorado, Harris wouldn't comment on the unusual delay between the time of his confirmation and the time he can officially do his judicial robes.

His colleagues advanced some of their own theories.

Most of them said the political situation in Arkansas was at the root of the delay. State law provides for runoff elections between the two top candidates when no one receives a majority of votes in a primary election. But it doesn't provide for a runoff in a special election to fill a vacancy.

In a special election, the top man would win even though he did not receive a majority of the votes.

"About 15 people already have indicated that they would like to run," an Arkansas political expert said. "We don't know who would win in a race like that. A Republican, or a Negro, could come out on top if the Democrats split their majority of votes among a dozen or more candidates."

For that reason, he explained, Gov. Orval E. Faubus might not call a special election to name a successor to Harris but would leave the seat vacant until it is filled in the regular election next November.

Such a course would leave the people of the 4th Congressional District without representation in the House after Harris resigned. To avoid that situation, Harris' judicial commission might be held up until some of the major bills have been acted on by the House next year.

Another explanation for the delay was that the President wants Harris — who will be 62 next Monday — to steer several more bills through the House before bowing out.

Harris is chairman of the In-

'Doctors' Records In Big Demand

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Hye, you who rock with only the latest beat on records! Try matching up the album "Borbyrgmi" with the right recording group!

No, not the Surfers. Or the Beatles. Or the Singing Nuns.

Here's a hint: "Borbyrgmi" means "noises from the intestinal tract."

Give up?

It's the "Singing Doctors," and they've sold 30,000 sets of their three albums of parodies kidding the life and work of the medical profession. Their other albums are "Placenta Preview" and "Medic Emetics." (No hints this time. Try the dictionary.)

Dr. James T. Brown, a surgeon, organized the group out of a simple necessity — he was appointed chairman of the entertainment committee for the Greene County Medical Society's annual installation banquet and was given no money.

"As a last resort, I searched around for five more extroverts and wrote a half-dozen parodies," he said. "We're just a bunch of hams who border on being tone deaf."

The other doctors are Charles E. Lockhart, Don F. Gose and F. T. H'Doubler Jr., surgeons; Harold H. Lurie, an internist, and Fred C. Collier, a pathologist.

They reduced the installation banquet to a hilarious howl, as they did later in command performances of their "Medical Hit Parade" at state and national medical conventions.

"Pentothal is a Ball," "Black and Blue Cross," "We'll Give Green Stamps," "Hallitosis Beats No Breath At All," and their other numbers ignited demands for records wherever they went.

The singing doctors turned their record business over to the Greene County Medical Society at Springfield, and as the result 42 youngsters are studying medicine at schools in the Midwest on grants and loans from the society's scholarship foundation. It gets all its money from the records.

"We look forward to helping still more," Dr. Brown said. "We're having the time of our lives."

LONDON (AP) — Two more robberies pushed the take in London's pre-Christmas crime wave today to more than $3.5 million in the last six weeks.

Police reported a man snatched a bag containing $84,000 worth of diamonds from a gem merchant as he left a subway station.

Police also reported thieves got into a post office in West London Wednesday and stole cash and postage stamps worth $84,000.

TOKYO (AP) — Japan and the Soviet Union will initial a provisional aviation treaty next week inaugurating the first Tokyo-Moscow air route, the Foreign Ministry announced today. Details of the agreement were not announced, but spokesmen said the Tokyo-Moscow airliners at first would be manned by a Russian crew and a Japanese co-pilot.

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — President Chung Hee Park's candidate for speaker of the National Assembly, Rhee Hyo-sang, was elected to a second term by only one vote today after about 50 members of Rhee's party voted against him.

The rebellion appeared to be a challenge to Park's right-hand man, Kim Chong-pil, chief engineer of the 1961 coup that brought Park to power.

Kim was forced into retirement last year but is now trying to regain the championship of Park's Democratic Republican party.

Marriage Ends For Douglas, Third Wife

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP) — The May-and-September marriage of Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and his third wife is ending after two years and four months.

Joan Martin Douglas, 25, filed suit for divorce in Superior (County) Court here Wednesday, charging the 67-year-old jurist with cruel treatment and personal indignities.

They met in 1961 when Douglas lectured at Allegheny College, where she was a student. Joan planned to do a senior year research project on Douglas' political philosophy, so a professor introduced them.

They were married Aug. 6, 1963, in Buffalo, N.Y.

In her divorce complaint, she said he agreed to pay her $500 a month for eight months beginning Jan. 1 and $400 a month thereafter until she dies or remarries. She asked for restoration of her maiden name.

In Washington, D.C., Douglas' office said he was out of the city. Mrs. Douglas' attorney, Dan Reaugh of Seattle, said he did not know where she was.

The couple had no children.

Douglas has a son, actor William O. Douglas Jr., and a daughter, Mrs. Frank C. Wells, by his first wife, whom he mar-

Asked at the National Press Club if he thought critics were becoming more or less astute, he replied:

"How could they become less astute?"

Any change will be an improvement.

All we do when we change the Volkswagen is to make it work even better. We don't play with the way it looks. So the 1966 VW still looks the same. And there you have the whole Volkswagen point of view: We keep looking for ways to improve our one basic model. And then we knock our brains out to make the new pieces fit old VWs, too. All the improvements make a fat back. And every one has made the car a touch better than it was before.

This year, the backs of the front seats can be locked so they won't push forward. Engine power's increased for the 4th time. And the windshield has a 3rd defroster (so you'll see where you're going in such a hurry). This system not only makes the VW better all the time, but also makes parts easier to get, mechanics more skillful and owners always in style. And we can still keep the price at a nice, reasonable $1723.00. Keep the change.

Aside from any disease-preventing aspects, mosquito abatement programs are encouraged to add to the general comfort. While you're about it don't neglect to clean out eaves troughs and rain gutters.

Dodging of Criticism

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

So, one evening when her mother asked to borrow a little pearl pin which had been a Christmas present, she couldn't say "yes" with enthusiasm. Afraid that it would be lost or mislaid like the grocery bills, her face took on a look of stub-

But, of course, she wasn't anything of the kind. She was just afraid that lending her pin meant the end of the pin. Since it didn't occur to anyone to ask "Why don't you want to lend your pin?" nobody ever learned that she possessed a most reasonable answer to this question.

We dodge the "Why did you do this?" question because we're afraid of the answer. We are scared that the answer may contain some criticism of us. The child might say, "Because you lose everything," or "Because you nag so much I don't want to do anything for you."

We want to monopolize all the accusing power. And so prefer to condemn children as "stubborn," "mean" and "thoughtless."

Once again I want to say thanks for helping us see that all of us must work together in Sedalia to make the town grow and to prove that Sedalia is what we knew it was all along—a good place in which to live.

LEGENDS OF CHRISTMAS

TOKYO—Tokyo citizens got a most unusual view of Cary Grant while the star was in Japan recently filming location scenes for the Columbia Pictures release of "Walk, Don't Run." Cary ranked as one of Hollywood's best-dressed male stars, was obliged, for comedy scenes, to run about clad only in his underwear. He is shown here keeping pace with Jim Hutton, (No. 44) who also stars in the film as an Olympic walker during the 1964 Tokyo Olympic Games. (UPI)

DEARBORN, Mich.—At a news conference here, Henry Ford II, chairman of the board, Ford Motor Co., predicted that car and truck sales for 1966 will equal or exceed the 10.8 million record being set this year. (UPI)

On Tokyo-Osaka Run

Fast Electric Train Gives Japan Airlines The Blues

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's super-express electric train is giving domestic airlines the blues.

The train covers the 322 miles between Japan's two biggest cities, Tokyo and Osaka, in three hours, 10 minutes. The sleek white and blue Hikari — Flash — trains dart out of Tokyo's central station 26 times a day.

The route used to be a gold mine for the airlines. Their jets hop the distance in half an hour, but the trip between downtown Tokyo and downtown Osaka takes about 2½ hours.

Said a passenger riding the Hikari on a business trip:

"The difference in time gained now is no longer worth the trouble of driving out to the airport, waiting around for takeoff, taking the risk of flying, and then having to drive back through dense traffic into downtown Osaka."

When the fastest express took six hours to reach Osaka, it was not always easy to get a plane booking.

One month after the Hikari started operating Oct. 1, 1964, with a cautious experimental five-hour schedule, Japan Air Lines suffered a 38 per cent drop in the number of passengers on its Tokyo-Osaka route, compared to the same month the previous year.

Last April the train time was cut to four hours, and another 50 minutes was slashed Nov. 1, giving the Hikari an average speed of 103 miles per hour.

At the end of November, Japan Air Line noted a 28 per cent drop compared to October in Tokyo-Osaka traffic. The other airline flying the run, All Japan Airlines, suffered a 25 per cent decline.

Airline officials have no effective measures to counteract the rail service.

Plans to speed up the trip between city center and airport with a helicopter service were dropped because the fare would be double that of a taxi.

The airlines' disadvantage concerns only the Tokyo-Osaka stretch, a relatively short trip. Jets fly from Tokyo to Fukuoka, or to Sapporo in one hour. The express trains take more than 10 hours.

In addition to the 26 Hikari trains, making stops at Nagoya and Kyoto, there are 26 round trips by the same type train, called Kodama — Echo — with a four-hour schedule.

All 800 seats on the Hikari are reserved — and almost always booked solid.

The Hikari is so smooth and silent, racing on long jointless rails, that it has surprised and killed several track workers. But not a passenger has been killed or injured.

Wouldn't Be Christmas Without Usual Sayings

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It wouldn't be Christmas unless someone said:

"If she doesn't like it, she can always bring it back anytime before the first of the year."

"You'd better start behaving this very minute—or there'll be no Santa Claus coming down the chimney for you."

"I don't care what kind of toy it is—just so it doesn't make a noise."

"I hate Christmas—it always makes me sad."

"Who put the raisins in the eggnog?"

"I hate to buy him a present until I am sure he is going to give me one."

"Every Christmas Eve it's the same thing, year after year. You come reeling home from your office party at midnight reeking of liquor and with lipstick marks all over both cheeks."

"I wouldn't mind Christmas so much if someone would just invent a self-carving turkey."

"What color necktie would you suggest for my husband? He's short, fat, middle-aged and has a mole on his forehead."

"Why not get her perfume? No woman ever has enough perfume."

"It really doesn't make any difference what I get her anyway—she always exchanges it."

"But Mama, I saw Santa Claus at the other department store. How could he be at this store, too? Did he run ahead of us?"

"Well, they say Christmas comes but once a year—and sometimes I think that's twice too often."

"Will you please quit humming 'Jingle Bells'? You're driving me out of my mind."

"It doesn't have to be too expensive. After all, it's the spirit behind it that counts."

"Yeah, it's for my wife. What size is she? Gee, I never asked her. But if you know what size Elizabeth Taylor is, just double it. That should fit her okay."

"I sweated and strained over a hot stove for half the day making this oyster dressing—and now you tell me you don't want any."

"I hate to take down the tree. The room looks so empty without it. I do believe it's the prettiest tree we ever had!"

Stock Traders Happily Predict Yearend Rally

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock traders have been happily catching sight this week of their traditional yearend rally. It's all mixed in with the usual December hullabaloo in Wall Street. But this year has some new twists.

This yearend buying or selling for tax purposes always sends the December market whirling in cross-currents. And the flood of corporate yearend statements and predictions for a better year ahead always influences some stock traders.

Beverly Hills Turns Down Poverty Funds

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — This wealthy city of movie stars and millionaires has declined with a "thank you anyway," an offer of $82,875 in poverty funds.

"We really didn't feel we could honestly say the money was needed," said School Supt. Kenneth L. Peters. "We were able to find only eight children of 5,000 enrolled who could possibly be classified as 'needy.'"

"In our judgment, these children are not educationally deprived or handicapped. They are in small classes that average 25 and remedial help is available if needed."

The allotment formula, under the 1965 Federal Education Act, was based on the 1960 census which showed that of 30,817 Beverly Hills residents, 460 families reported an average income of less than $2,000.

"Although we could have qualified for the funds, we felt it just would not be in the spirit of the program to accept," Peters said.

The rise this week in the popular stock averages to within whispering distance of their record highs is encouraging the bulls to believe that the yearend rally will develop for sure this time.

And so does the happy announcement of yearend added dividends for stockholders.

But this year tradition has some other things to contend with that would give a rally more than just a technical significance.

There's the war in Viet Nam which currently is influencing much investor thinking. There's the rise in interest rates, an uncertainty in itself, but at this time adding more than usual to the confusion. That is because of the debate over whether the economy is headed for a brush with overheating and inflation or on the contrary is in need of further stimulant, such as cheap money, to keep the long upturn going full speed.

Wall Street also has been wondering about the rush of buying of glamor stocks, those in new or growth companies that are attracting the public's attention. The record volume of trading in stocks also has the experts studying their charts, trying to decide if this spells a traditional bull market, perhaps nearing its peak, or a speculative boom under threat of a bust in weeks ahead.

Return of buying demand in some of the blue chips has been reassuring to those who hope the trading volume is an expression of the general prosperity and just not gambling on the uncertain future.

Like most Wall Street traditions, the yearend rally is more sentimental and technical than it is a certainty. Sometimes it is strong. Sometimes it is weak. Sometimes it doesn't even arrive.

School for Saving Youth From Lonely, Dull World

By ARTHUR L. SRB

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Johnny, 6, sat on his teacher's lap in the center of a small classroom. After repeated coaxing, the child uttered the words "Mouth, mouth, Johnny's mouth."

The teacher didn't give Johnny a passing mark or a star for mastering a new word. He hugged him lovingly.

Johnny desperately needs both the individual attention and the affection. He has been blind since birth and is mentally handicapped.

But he is learning. Johnny is a pupil at Hope School for Blind-Multiple Handicapped Children, an institution devoted to rescuing such youngsters from their lonely, frustrating worlds.

There are an estimated 15,000 blind children in the United States who are mentally retarded and also may have other physical handicaps.

Because they are blind, they can't get admittance to schools for the retarded. Because they are functionally handicapped, they can't enter schools for the blind.

That is why Hope School was founded.

Johnny, one of 28 pupils in the school, is the only child in his class. There are two desks, his and his teacher's.

"The object is to establish rapport between one and one," said Maurice Tretakoff, director of the school. "Johnny must be taught in a room where there is no competition."

"We believe we're the first to try to combat this problem in depth," Tretakoff said.

Johnny, who came to Hope School in June 1965 from Chicago, now has a vocabulary of 10 words. His hands no longer have to be restrained and self-inflicted scratches and sores on his hands and face are healing.

"These children are afraid," Tretakoff said. "They are their own worst enemies. The answer is human contact and lots of it."

Contact, Tretakoff said, is a child letting you know he is listening. Then, and only then, can training begin.

Hopefully, Johnny one day will join others in organized activities. Across the hall from his one-pupil classroom, 10 children were seated in a semicircle keeping time with sticks to recorded march music.

One, Mary Lou, 9, was "practically a vegetable" when she came to Hope School five years ago, Tretakoff said. Today she can dress herself, find her way to and from her room and is learning Braille.

Another is Judy Jordan, now 18, whose parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Jordan of Springfield, founded Hope School in 1957.

Because Judy was blind, retarded and emotionally disturbed, her parents could find no school for her. They traveled in vain throughout the United States and parts of the world.

When a state official suggested that Jordan "put Judy in a mental hospital and forget about her," he was so shocked he decided to set up his own school.

The first school was an old six-room house. Jordan, a dentist, hired a housekeeper and a nurse. Judy, then 11, was joined by a Springfield boy with similar afflictions. The enrollment continued to grow.

Today a new Hope School, a $600,000 modern brick-and-glass building, is nestled in a wooded area along Lake Springfield.

Its 28 pupils come from 11 states. The school is besieged by requests from parents who want to enroll their children.

The school's two cottages which adjoin the classrooms and administrative offices will be expanded eventually to 10 with accommodations for 125 persons, Tretakoff said.

Sees Effort To Fix Price Of Wheat In US

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Gordon L. Allott says the Administration is trying to fix and control the price of wheat.

The Colorado Republican spoke out Thursday following a government decision to sell surplus wheat in an attempt to "stabilize the wheat market and prevent wild fluctuation of prices."

Two other Republican senators—Jack R. Miller of Iowa and Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska—joined Allott in his criticism.

Hruska called the wheat plan "the latest example of economic blackjacking to force compliance with Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman's ill-conceived farm programs."

Miller said the wheat offer is an effort to depress prices "when wheat is not overpriced."

Under existing laws, the department can sell surplus wheat at 108 per cent of the current price support plus handling charges. Wheat price supports now are $1.25 a bushel.

Total U.S. wheat stocks now are estimated at 1.5 billion bushels.

Hope School are able to pay only a fraction of the $20,000 annually it costs to care for each child. The rest comes from public donations.

Must Generate Power

Green Bay Should Clinch Western Conference Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Green Bay should wrap up the Western Conference title Sunday on the final day of the season if the Packers can generate the same smashing power they showed in beating Baltimore last Sunday.

The battered Colts figure to have their hands full Saturday against the revived Los Angeles

Rams in the Coliseum. Chicago can be expected to pull out all the stops against Minnesota with Gale Sayers going for the scoring title and the Bears still clinging to a hope of a tie for first.

It's the last time around for the Hand-picker. Last week's 8-3 record made it 60-30-1 in the NFL, 28-15-5 in the AFL and 88-45-6 for the season.

Let's try once more. (All games Sunday unless otherwise noted.)

NFL

Los Angeles 21, Baltimore 14, Saturday — with Gary Cuozzo out of action, Tom Matte or Ed Brown must carry the load in this nationally televised game over CBS. Colts desperately need this one but must go with inexperienced passer or vet who never has worked with receivers.

Green Bay 21, San Francisco 14 — Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor looked like one-two punch of old against Colts and Bart Starr was on beam. Solid Packer defense beat 49ers 27-10 in mid-October but it must be at top level to handle John Brodie-Dave Parks battery. San Francisco offense in high gear but their defense hasn't stopped many Packers favored.

Washington 28, Pittsburgh 10 — Redskins are trying safety Paul Krause at split end with Pat Richter out and are benching Charley Taylor for George Hugley. Steelers in tough shape have lost six in a row and had nine passes intercepted last week by Eagles. Washington romped 31-3 Nov. 21 and should repeat. Redskins favored.

Chicago 42, Minnesota 21 — All out for the races, Gale Sayers scored six last week and ripped the Vikings for four TDs the first time they saw him Oct. 17 in 45-37 Chicago win. Vikings snapped out of it against Lions but their defense is in for another long afternoon. Bears favored.

New York 28, Dallas 24 — This is for second place and a trip to the Playoff Bowl at Miami. Giants go if they win or tie. Cowboys must win to get the sun tan.

Cleveland 28, St. Louis 14 — Charley Johnson underwent shoulder operation this week so beat-up Cards must go with Buddy Humphrey. Browns had their letdown in Los Angeles.

CMS Wrestlers Defeat Team From Columbia

WARRENSBURG, Mo.—Central Missouri State wrestlers, in their first dual meet of the season, beat a squad from the University of Missouri at Garrison Gym Tuesday night, 22-11.

The Mules, grappling before a crowd of some 1,000, won six of the nine events.

The results:

Two S.C. Cage Teams Lose To Warrensburg

The Smith-Cotton A and B freshman teams lost to Warrensburg in a basketball double-header in Sedalia Thursday.

The S.C. freshman A-team lost 38-34 with Allen Browder scoring 13 points to lead Sedalia while Bill Lederer was high for Warrensburg.

In the freshman B-game, Peter Green's 12 points weren't enough to lift the Bengals to victory, but Warrensburg's Rick Watkins found his ten points good enough for the final scoring favoring Warrensburg, 22-20.

The S.C. B-team meets Smith-Tuesday, while the A-team takes a short Christmas vacation.

The regular meeting of Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion will be held on the first and third Mondays of each month at 7:30 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, 16th St. and Thompson Boulevard.

Philadelphia 17, Detroit 14 — Eagles have more punch, but Lions' rugged defense will make it real tight.

AFL

Boston 28, Houston 21 Saturday — George Blanda threw three TDs in Oilers' Sept. 19 victory 31-10, but Pats are moving in stretch and Houston is staggering. If Jets lose to Buffalo, this could be for second place in the East. It's on national television from Boston over NBC. Boston favored.

Buffalo 37, New York 21 — Bills have beaten Jets once in regular season and twice in exhibitions and must stay sharp to be ready for Dec. 26 title game at San Diego. Jets hopeful Matt Snell's ankle will be solid enough to let him play. Buffalo favored.

Oakland 21, San Diego 14 — Chargers without Keith Lincoln, but Paul Lowe needs only 11 yards to top league rushing record. Oakland was in race until last week and Al Davis would like to get even for Sept. 19 defeat by Chargers 17-6. San Diego favored.

Kansas City 31, Denver 21 — Denver will go with Jack Lee at quarterback, hoping to reverse earlier 31-23 defeat. Chiefs shaken by death of Mack Lee Hill will shift Curt McClinton to fullback and use Bery Coan at halfback. Chiefs favored.

NFL Gets Top Draft Choice

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer National Football League teams, throwing a 1-2-3 combination from coast to coast, have beaten the American League's San Diego Chargers to their top three draft choices—Don Davis, Nick Rassas and Milt Morin.

Within an hour Thursday the NFL had pulled off the rapid-fire coup this way:

—Davis, a 255-pound defensive tackle from Los Angeles State, was signed in Los Angeles by the New York Giants, who had selected him as their No. 2 pick.

—Rassas, an All-America defensive back at Notre Dame, signed in Atlanta with the NFL's new Falcons, who had made him a second-round selection.

—Morin, a 6-foot-4, 245-pound receiver from the University of Massachusetts, signed in New York with the Cleveland Browns, who had tapped him as their No. 1 choice.

No salary figures were announced but all were believed to be in the six-figure class.

The signings continued the NFL's raid on the San Diego club, added to Atlanta's impressive collection of talent and gave the NFL another boost over the AFL in the number of premier signings.

NFL teams previously had picked off the Chargers fourth choice, halfback Charles Brown of Syracuse; their fifth choice, Miami halfback Russ Smith, and their eighth selection, linebacker Doug Buffone of Louisville. Brown and Buffone signed with Chicago while Smith went with Atlanta.

The Falcons now have signed five of their first six selections, including the big one—Texas linebacker Tommy Nobis. In addition, they also have signed two of Rassas' Notre Dame teammates, receiver Phil Sheridan and halfback Bill Wolski.

Morin was the 11th of 16 first-round selections to be correlated by the NFL, which has lost only one top choice.

The AFL, on the other hand, has signed five of its 10 first-round picks and lost three to the NFL.

Bradley Wins 7th Straight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ninth-ranked Bradley won its seventh straight basketball game Thursday night, beating Butler 73-70 at Peoria by converting 15 of its 20 shots from the foul line.

Drake defeated Iowa State 72-66 at Des Moines, a surprisingly small margin in view of the fact the Cyclones hit only 23 per cent of their field shots.

St. Louis came within an eyelash of beating Loyola of Chicago, but Billy Smith rammed home a rebound with 10 seconds to go and the Ramblers won 74-73.

In tonight's action, Cincinnati is at Southern California and Tulsa is at home to West Texas State.

Butler topped Bradley 31-29 in baskets from the field and was ahead 41-37 at the half. Five Bradley players had 10 points or more.

Drake lifted its record 3-2 with the victory over Iowa State. Herman Watson was high for the Bulldogs with 23 points.

Loyola had a five point lead on St. Louis coming down to the wire, but Bob Cole and Rich Parks converted two free throws apiece and Rick Rinberg hit a basket that put the Billikens ahead with 1:23 to go.

After Cole missed a free throw Loyola maneuvered for a last-breath shot and Smith won the game with his follow through.

St. Louis led by as much as eight points early in the first half.

K. C. Firm Has Low Bid On New Building

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The apparent low bid for construction of a five-story state office building in downtown Kansas City was submitted Thursday by Sharp Brothers Construction Co. of Kansas City.

Sharp's base bid was $3,815,556 which was lower than the engineers' estimate of $3,891,500.

The building will be on a one-block site near the new federal office building, the City Hall, and the county courthouse.

Paul Lowe Is Voted Comeback Player of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Paul

Lowe, the running sensation of the American Football League, has been voted the Comeback Player of the Year for his ability to bounce back strong after injuries threatened his career.

Lowe sat out the entire 1962 season with a broken arm and won the comeback award by gaining 1,010 yards in 1963. Last year he saw limited action due to a torn muscle in his right leg and his production dropped off to 513 yards and five touchdowns.

The injury jinx hit again this season when a torn muscle in his left leg forced him to miss the exhibition season of the San Diego Chargers.

On opening day, Lowe ran for 122 yards against Denver and started on his way to his current total of 1,089 yards, only 10 short of the league record set by Clem Daniels of Oakland in 1963. The former Oregon State star has enjoyed four 100-yard-plus days and has the rushing title wrapped up with one game to go.

Sixth Straight Win

Syracuse Making Come-Back Effort

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Syracuse, one of the disappointments of the college basketball season a year ago, is on the way back.

In contrast to their poor start last season when they won their first game then lost six in a row, the Orangemen chalked up their sixth straight against no defeats this season with a 103-79 victory over previously unbeaten Penn State Thursday night.

Dave Bing, a 6-foot-3 from Washington, D.C., delighted a record turnout of 6,913 at the Manley Field House on the Syracuse campus. He paced the Orange with 24 points, 10 rebounds and six assists.

Carver Clinton, with 28 points, led the Nittany Lions who stayed in contention until Syracuse took a nine-point lead 79-70 late in the second half.

Another youth from the nation's capital, Bob Lewis, also made headlines.

Lewis, a 6-3 junior, set an all-time individual one-game scoring record for North Carolina with 49 points as the Tar Heels swamped Florida State 115-80 at Chapel Hill.

Lewis hit on 18 of 25 shots from the field and got 13 of 16

free throws as he erased the previous Tar Heel one-game record of 48 points set last year by Billy Cunningham against Tulane. In addition Lewis grabbed seven rebounds and handed out five assists.

Tony Hinkle, veteran Butler coach, again was thwarted in his bid for his 500th career victory when ninth-ranked Bradley defeated his Bulldogs 73-70 at Peoria. It was the seventh straight victory for the unbeaten Braves, the only team in The Associated Press Top Ten, to play Thursday.

Houston, paced by Joe Hammond's 20 points, won the unofficial championship of the two-day Bluebonnet Classic at Houston by defeating Texas A&M 90-85. The Cougars were the only ones to win on both nights.

South Carolina, which had surprised Duke, The AP's No. 1 team last week, took a 83-66 trouncing from NYU in the feature of a New York doubleheader. Stan McKenzie scored a career high of 37 points for the Violets. Unbeaten DePaul swamped Iona 82-37 in the other game at Madison Square Garden.

The 36-game winning streak of Central State of Ohio, No. 1 in the AP small-college poll, was snapped by Steubenville 59-57 on John Hummel's jump shot in the last second of play. The Evansville Aces, No. 2 and defending NCAA small-college champs also lost. They were beaten by Mt. St. Mary's 83-81 on Mike Lyon's layup with eight seconds left.

Namath Has New Honors For List

NEW YORK (AP) — "That's real nice," said Joe Namath when he was informed that he had been selected Rookie of the Year in the American Football League.

"You must have run out of candidates," And so, using the defense mechanism — the quick retort — that he has employed in accepting praise throughout the season while trying to avoid appearing immodest, the likeable $400,000 quarterback of the New York Jets accepted his latest honors.

Namath was selected Thursday by an Associated Press panel of 24 sports writers — three from each league city — and was a landslide winner with 18 votes to three for the runner-up, Denver linebacker John Bramlett.

Only three others received votes, running back Wendell Hayes of Denver and defensive back Kent McCloughan and linebacker Gus Otto, both of Oakland.

"Biggs didn't get any votes?" asked Namath, referring to teammate Verlon Biggs, the Jets' first-year defensive end. "I thought he'd be right up there."

"No, I can't consider it a good year," said Namath in answer to a question. "We won four, lost eight, tied one. That's not good. If I had been doing good, we would have won more."

"I'll have to admit I got bugged by a lot of things. But I learned you have to devote your entire thinking to the game. You've got to get the other things out of your mind. Otherwise they only present problems."

Miss Walker Now Works As Director

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Nancy Walker was wearing work gear — jeans, bulky pullover, ex-white sneakers — and the unswerving look of a housewife on Monday morning.

"When the curtain goes up opening night, I know I'll faint," she said, but you knew that was about as likely as Liz Taylor playing Lady Macbeth.

Over at a littered table on the edge of the rehearsal hall she consulted the script through big, black-rimmed glasses. Then she waved over one of the cast, whispered in his ear. A moment later, she went into a "like this" bit for some of the other performers.

Miss Walker, sometimes cheered as one of the show world's funniest comedienne, was well into another drill of the play that marks her metamorphosis into Nancy Walker, Broadway director.

The debut venture is "UTBU," a satiric farce due at the Helen Hayes Theater on Jan. 4. Immediately after that she tackles a trio of short plays by novelist Saul Bellow for off-Broadway exhibit.

As fans of the stocky little star are well aware, she's been itching for such a chance for several years — mostly in the hope that employment would thereby increase.

"I didn't swear off acting, I just got bored to death," declares Miss Walker, who last performed on Broadway in 1961's "Do-Re-Mi." That was just 20 years after she first set the public cheering as a lass of 19 in "Best Foot Forward."

"Everything that's offered is just repetition of what I've done before, and I'm getting too old to sit around waiting for the part to come along."

A couple of times in recent seasons she almost got started as a director, but the projects were shelved.

After a bit of off-the-record emergency staging for one enterprise, she publicly tested her ability last spring in a workshop production of two of the Bellow scripts.

Dropping in at one of the invitation-only performances was Jack Kirkwood, an actor turned novelist.

"He was an old friend and after the performance he said he'd just written a play that he'd like me to read. So I did and I flipped. It's wild — that's why I wanted to direct it."

The fanciful notion of the comedy concerns a secret organization whose members go about the world cheerily eliminating all ill-humored folk. The title condenses the outfit's slogan that it is "Unhealthy To Be Unpleasant."

The cast includes an impressive assortment of talents including Tony Randall, Thelma Ritter, Alan Webb and Margaret Hamilton. Such performers, says Miss Walker, are for her.

TOUGH SPOT—Gary Cuozzo, Baltimore's replacement for injured quarterback John Unitas, finally has his chance after three years on the bench.

Aviation World Looks At Humble Start

KILL DEVIL HILLS, N.C. (AP) — The world of aviation, thrilled by this week's space feats of Gemini 6 and 7 astronauts, looks back today to its beginning.

This is the 62nd anniversary of the Wright brothers' first flights on the North Carolina Outer Banks.

The Wright Memorial, a 60-foot pylon marking the scene of the initial efforts of the Dayton, Ohio, brothers is the scene of an annual memorial service and wreath placing.

Air National Guard fighter planes are to zoom over the area where on Dec. 17, 1903, Orville Wright made the first successful flight — 120 feet in 12 seconds.

Iowa Man Dies After Accident

BETHANY, Mo. (AP) — An Iowa man died at a hospital Thursday night, several hours after being injured in a traffic accident on Highway 69 four miles south of Bethany.

The victim was Ralph J. Blum, 46, Dubuque, Iowa, who, according to the Highway Patrol, was a passenger in a car driven by Merlin A. Manternach, 44, Jefferson, Iowa.

Manternach suffered facial lacerations and an injury to the right leg. The driver of the other car involved, Lloyd F. Abbott, 48, Kansas City, Mo., suffered a small laceration on the forehead and bruises. Manternach was treated at Noll Hospital here. Troopers said Abbott refused medical treatment.

The patrol said the Abbott car came around a curve on the wrong side of the road and crashed head-on into the Manternach vehicle.

Abbott was charged by the patrol with careless and imprudent driving and was taken to the Harrison County jail.
